

Local and Personal

T. W. Fletcher, Dawson, spent a day in the city.

F. J. Johns is building a residence on his ranch west of town.

D. W. Snyder and Wm. Pennock, of Clayton, were here a few days this week.

Doroteo Garcia, a sheepman of Quay, was in Tucumcari Wednesday, trading.

Charles Kohn, of the firm of Kohn Bros., Montoya, was a business visitor Tuesday.

S. G. Buck, the sheepman of San Jon, loaded out ranch supplies Wednesday.

Juan Hinojosa, father of our fellowtownsman, Juan Hinojosa, died at Puerto Luna last week.

Tucumcari is expecting some revelations in the railroad line about the first of the year.

Melquiades Velez, sheepman from Ojo Del Llano, bought ranch supplies here Wednesday.

Belen over on the Santa Fe Cut-off is said to be on a boom. New Mexico towns are generally prosperous.

FOR SALE OR TRADE—A good blooded Jack. For particulars apply to Fred Walther, Puerto, N. M.

R. L. Hunter, Chief Clerk at the Dawson, and his family have gone to Hannibal, Mo., for a holiday visit.

Mr. Goens, roadmaster of the Dalhart division, was here from Dalhart Thursday to assist clearing the wreck of engine 1000.

Conductor Emory Brown from the main line, bid for and got the bill run between Dawson and Mexina.

Conductor Campbell, from El Paso, took the through run between here and Dawson formerly held by Jack Englehart.

W. W. Galbraith of the firm of Jackson-Galbraith-Foxworth Co., was here from El Paso Wednesday as a business visitor.

A. K. Carter has struck water on his ranch at So-bet. His place is near town and this well will add considerable value to it.

Juan Tofoya is building a new house on the lot he purchased from the Tucumcari Townsite & Investment Company.

W. J. Hargis, Traveling Auditor for the Mexican Central, a brother of H. H. Hargis, the Rock Island local agent, is here for a holiday visit.

We saw two new wagons being pulled out from the Goldenberg warehouse this week at one time, going to the country to serve the farmers.

It is estimated that the population of New Mexico will reach 700,000 by spring. If all other sections are settling up like Quay County, that estimate is too small.

Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Donohoe will entertain a large number of their friends at the Rock Island Eating House Saturday evening, December 23. The program says dancing.

Business is good on the Dawson this week. The boys at the yards handled 200 cars of coal Monday and 70 cars Tuesday. After January the output will be increased to 150 cars a day.

Wm. Green, Bryant, Wm., and his wife are visiting their son-in-law, J. J. Austin, here for the winter. They intend to locate if they like the country after they have tried it for that length of time.

M. B. Goldenberg returned a few days ago from a business trip to the old stamping ground near at Santa Fe. He reports that country in a flourishing condition and the people generally prosperous.

W. F. Buchanan shipped a car load of steers to El Paso City a few days ago that netted him about 1 cents. They were fattened on cotton seed meal and stalk pasture. He made a profit of about 80 cents per head on the shipment.

N. V. Gallegos, the deputy probate clerk, is nursing a very severe cold.

Luciano Garcia cut his hand seriously Thursday.

The W. H. M. Society met this week with Mrs. B. F. Williams.

The Baptists are planning to have preaching every Sunday.

Rev. Morris, presiding elder preached at the M. E. Church last Sunday.

Chairman of the Board of County Commissioners, Mr. Hendren, was a visitor yesterday.

Julius Halbner, representing Schwab, the St. Louis Clothier, was a business visitor.

M. C. Mechem, the district attorney, went to Santa Rosa yesterday on professional business.

Mrs. J. W. Middleton, wife of the late J. W. Middleton of Raton, came in from that place last night.

C. Edmund Buchert, representing Smith Premier Typewriter Co., El Paso, was in town yesterday between trains.

The Union Christmas tree of the Baptist and Methodist Churches is progressing nicely.

Key Reese of the Baptist Church reports a very pleasant and profitable time at the convention at Alamogordo.

The Christmas trees at both the M. E. and Baptist churches are to be held Saturday night before Christmas.

C. G. Stephenson, trainmaster of Dalhart, was here yesterday to clear up the wreck of 1600. He returned to Dalhart on 30 yesterday afternoon.

Rev. Jim Sinton, a local minister of the Methodist Church, South, from Missouri, visited the town last week with a view of going into business here.

Teo. D. Martinez, the county surveyor, assisted about twenty of the party of twenty-five who came here this week for land to get suitable homesteads.

Mrs. R. A. Waller, Mrs. M. Trimble, Miss Bonnie Crawford and Mr. L. Crawford, from Broken Arrow, I. T., were the guests of Rev. and Mrs. Hedgereth last Tuesday.

Quite a number of the prospective settlers from the Creek Nation, I. T., are friends and former parishioners of "Bro. Joe" of the Methodist Church, South.

"Bro. Joe" cordially invites and will gladly welcome all children to Junior League and special children's service every Sunday at 3 p. m. at the Methodist Church, South.

County Commissioner Wayne spent several days in town this week visiting his family who are here for the winter so his children can attend the public school.

The Rev. J. M. Harkness, of Santa Rosa will preach at the M. E. Church, South, here Sunday morning and night. He will talk about "In His Steps" at night and will use illustrations.

J. W. Butler, the operator at Montoya, died at that place, Thursday at 10 o'clock p. m. of tuberculosis. M. H. Koch, undertaker and embalmer, went up Thursday afternoon and prepared the body for shipment to Fort Worth, where it will be interred.

Engine No. 1000, in charge of Engineer Payne, went off the track Thursday afternoon about 5 o'clock in the yards east of the depot. A broken switch is thought to be the cause. Several cars went off with the engine, but no damage of account was done.

W. A. Jackson is going to feed 500 head of cattle for the Spring market. The forage crop raised here, much of it, is going to be disposed of in this way. There is money in it to both the farmer and stockman when used in this way.

Santa Claus'

Last Call For Christmas

- At -

The M. B. Goldenberg Co. Store

We will in addition to our large stock now on hand, receive
NEW GOODS, DAILY

From now until the very eve of Christmas, so our patrons may rest assured that they will find something to please their fancy and accommodate their purse along all the different lines of Holiday Giving.

THE BEST CHRISTMAS GIFTS

Are those which combine a large measure of utility with other good qualities, and our stock is particularly strong in this class of goods. Among hundreds of other items we note

MEXICAN DRAWN WORK

Always beautiful, useful, and highly prized by your lady friends—married or single. A large line of choice pieces at any price you choose from 15c upwards.

CUT GLASS

The real article—hand work, clear, brilliant, and never loses its sparkle. Tumblers, Bowls, Cruets, Jelly Saucers, Sherbert Glasses, etc. 65c to $13.75

Fancy decorated imported China, salad and fruit bowls, creamers, cake plates, etc. 35c to $3.00

Ladies' Moca and Kid driving gloves $1.25 to $1.85

Men's moca velvet finish walking and driving gloves at $1.50 and $1.75

Plain and fancy sweaters, many new patterns, $1.00 to $3.75

Silk mufflers, black, white and fancy.

Elegant suspenders, some with sterling silver, and gold plated mounting, 75c to $2.00

Plain and embroidered half hose, lisle and cashmere, 25c to 65c

Silk, linen and the new superba cambric handkerchiefs, plain, fancy and initial, at all prices for men, ladies and children.

Ladies' fine knitted shawls and fascinators, many new things, just received in silk and wool.

Childrens' fancy bonnets and hoods, velvet, plush silk, and wool, 35c to $1.25

Ask to see the fringed cuff Texas gauntlet for boys and the white Bear mittens for little folks.

We have only hinted at the resources of our stock. Call early and often every day of the week between this and Xmas and you will find new attractions at the big store of

The M. B. Goldenberg Co.

Be sure and get your prize and premium tickets with all cash purchases